RECEIVED
FEDERAL ELECTION
COMMISSION
OFFICE OF THE CLERK
JUL 5 1 51 PM '02

RESPONSE TO THE REASON TO BELIEVE FINDING BY CARPENTERS LEGISLATIVE IMPROVEMENT COMMITTEE UNITED BROTHERHOOD OF CARPENTERS AND JOINERS OF AMERICA, AND ITS TREASURER

I. Introduction

Carpenters Legislative Improvement Committee United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, and Monte Byers as Treasurer, (collectively, "Carpenters' Legislative") hereby submit the following response to the Federal Election Commission's (the "FEC" or the "Commission") May 10, 2002 reason to believe notification in the above captioned matter.

The allegations made against Carpenters' Legislative are completely without basis, and we, therefore, respectfully request that the Commission withdraw its reason to believe finding and enter into the record a finding of no reason to believe that Carpenter's Legislative violated the Federal Election Campaign Act (the "Act") and, further, dismiss this action as against this respondent.

II. Facts

On May 10, 2002, Carpenters' Legislative received a reason to believe notification from the Commission alleging that "there appears to be evidence that Carpenters' Legislative was involved in a scheme to use union funds to make federal contributions in the name of KSDCC members." Factual and Legal Analysis at 3. Based on the limited information provided to Carpenters' Legislative in the accompanying Factual and Legal Analysis,¹ we can only conclude that the Commission has been misled by the source of "information" referred to throughout the document.

Though the information relating to an alleged "scheme" by Carpenters' Legislative must have seemed tantalizing to the General Counsel's office, it is completely false. The allegedly nefarious refunds referred to in the Factual and Legal Analysis had nothing to do with illegal activity. The refunds in question were made to correct an administrative and reporting error made by Carpenters' Legislative, and, in fact, were made at the suggestion of the Reports Analysis Division in March or April of 2001.

¹ Besides the vague references in the Factual and Legal Analysis to "the information" provided to the Commission, and scant reference thereafter in the Factual and Legal Analysis to any other facts relating to Carpenters' Legislative, Carpenters' Legislative has been left to guess as to the source and substance of the serious charges made against it. The General Counsel's office makes no attempt in their Factual and Legal Analysis to explain how Carpenters' Legislative was involved in a "scheme," other than to make the conclusory statement that the Commission has in its possession "evidence" of a scheme.

To explain further, on or about January 2001, Carpenters' Legislative forwarded a remittance list from KSDCC to Gnosso Software (the company that prepares Carpenters' Legislative's FEC reports) that Gnosso believed to be for federal "check-off" contributions to Carpenters' Legislative. However, in this instance, the information submitted to Gnosso Software was not for contributions, but were credit union remittances from KSDCC employees.

Robin Sexton, a consultant working for Gnosso Software at the time, was responsible for reconciling bank statements, producing FEC reports for filing, and generating Carpenters' Legislative's FEC reports. Ms. Sexton remembers the details surrounding the remittance list and has prepared an affidavit (attached as Exhibit 2) detailing the circumstances surrounding the list and the subsequently generated FEC report. See also the Remittance List (attached as Exhibit 3).

According to Ms. Sexton, the remittance sheet included figures for contributions that, when added together, were different from the aggregated contribution check that accompanied the figures ($932). See Check (attached as Exhibit 4). The $932 represented the proper amount of total aggregated contributions for that time period, whereas the figures listed on the remittance sheet totaled several thousand dollars. See Affidavit of Robin Sexton. The aggregate of the figures on the remittance list and the amount on the check were supposed to match, but did not. This error was not caught, despite Gnosso's controls to prevent just such an error. The information from the remittance was subsequently entered into Gnosso's database, and the February 20, 2001 report was generated, and reported to the FEC, with the incorrect figures. Id. It is important to note, however, that the contributions for the amounts listed on the remittance were never actually deposited into Carpenter's Legislative's account, and, though listed as "receipts" on the reports, were never in fact received by Carpenter's Legislative.² Id.

Some time thereafter, Ms. Sexton discovered the error and contacted the Reports Analysis Division ("RAD"). Id. After explaining what had happened to the RAD analyst (i.e., that the "receipts" reported were incorrect and were never actually "received" by Carpenter's Legislative), the analyst recommended that the "receipts" from the February 20, 2001 report be shown on the next available report as "refunds." Id. This was, in fact, what Gnossos did.³ See May 20, 2001 FEC report.

In sum, what may have appeared to amount to a "scheme to use union funds to make federal contributions in the name of KSDCC members," was nothing more than an administrative and reporting error, the circumstances of which were already known to the FEC Reports Analysis Division.

IV. Conclusion

We trust that this response, and the documents provided and questions answered pursuant to the FEC subpoena, have clarified this matter to the Commission's satisfaction. We believe that the seriousness of the allegations, and the conclusory statements in the Factual and Legal Analysis, warrant the withdrawal of the reason to believe finding and a finding of no reason to believe, rather than a bare dismissal.

² Nor were they actually "refunded." As discussed below, these "refunds" were noted on the reports only to correct a reporting error, according to the instructions of the RAD analyst.

³ The relevant reports are the February 20, 2001 and May 20, 2001 monthly reports, attached as Exhibit 1. The reports show that a number of itemized "contributions" received by Carpenters' Legislative from KSDCC members in January 2001 were subsequently "refunded" to these same individuals in April 2001.

For these reasons, we respectfully request that the Commission withdraw its finding of reason to believe and enter into the record a finding of no reason to believe Carpenter's Legislative violated the Act, and dismiss this action as against this respondent.

AFFIDAVIT OF ROBIN SEXTON

I, Robin Sexton, do affirm and state as follows:

- 1. I worked as a consultant to Gnossos Software from June 1999 through January 2001, at which time I became a full-time employee of Gnossos Software.
- 2. During the time of my consulting, my primary responsibility was to provide outsourcing services to Gnossos clients and to assist in the sales process.
- 3. While I was a consultant, Gnossos hired another person to work in the outsourcing department to help with much of the data entry and deposits.
- 4. My role then evolved to reconciling bank statements, producing FEC reports for filing, and generating the Carpenters Legislative Improvement Committee United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America ("Carpenter's Legislative") reports.
- 5. These responsibilities continued after I was hired into a full-time position.
- 6. The process for managing Carpenter's Legislative receipts was as follows: once each week, a packet of all checks received would be sent to Gnossos; a Gnossos outsourcing employee would open each check and stamp it with a batch number, logging all checks received in that packet into the system.
- 7. The outsourcing employee was supposed to compare the checks to the remittance forms. If there was a discrepancy between the two items, the checks and remittance forms were to be returned to the sender and a reconciliation or correction was requested. If the two items appeared to be identical, the individual receipts were entered from the remittance and the check was deposited.

8. In January 2001, Gnosso received from Carpenter's Legislative a remittance from the Kentucky State District Council of Carpenters ("KSDCC"). When this was received, the data was entered into the Keep in Touch software, even though the check and the remittance figures did not match. The person entering this data did not notice the discrepancy until he prepared a deposit.
9. This person then pulled the check and the remittance form and sent a request for clarification. He did not, however, delete the receipts, and they were subsequently reported, though the check was not deposited.
10. This first came to my attention when I reconciled the February 2001 bank statement, as these receipts were still shown as outstanding.
11. When I questioned my subordinate, he stated that he had requested a correction from KSDCC.
12. When the amount was still outstanding when I reconciled the March bank statement, I requested that my co-worker follow-up with KSDCC to determine the problem. As it turned out, the original remittance sent to Gnosso was a credit union remittance that had been sent in error with the correct check for the Carpenter's Legislative contributions.
13. When I realized the problem, I contacted the FEC Reports Analysis Division ("RAD"), and explained the situation to a RAD analyst, noting that, though the erroneous receipts had been reported, they had never actually been funded. The analyst recommended that they be shown on the next report as returned contributions, which is how we reported them on the May 20, 2001 report.

Further your Affiant sayeth not.
